(E) Business Outlook

Mr. M. P. Taparia, Managing Director, The Supreme Industries Limited, said:

The Polymer prices remain affordable.

The volatility in Crude prices, the effect of Global trade frictions, the rise in Federal interest rates have created a lot of business uncertainty.

Even with these macro-level headwinds, the domestic markets look healthy and promise greater business growth potential. The Company remains quite optimistic in growing in all it's business segments.

Emerging from this business outlook, the Company remains fully committed to its investment plans.

The Company's green field plant at (Ghiloth) Rajasthan is now complete and will go in production in July/Septemberquarter. The production will also start in other green field plant at Jadcherla in Telangana where first phase may start in October/November this year.

The expansion of capacities at Hosur, Derabassi, Malanpur, Durgapur and Kharagpur plants will be complete and go in production before December this year. Khopoli unit's expansion of capacities will go in production in Jan/March 2019.

The Company is progressing to acquire land for putting another plant in Assam. Land procurement for putting up a plant in Andhra Pradesh is still under negotiation with the State Government.

The Company procured an order from Bangladesh to supply 40,000 Nos LPG Composite Cylinder where supply has started. The Company is in final stage of negotiation to supply LPG Cylinders in other export markets.

Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited (HPCL) has made a soft launch of Composite Cylinders supplied by the Company in four cities. The Company has also started supplying Composite Cylinders to two private gas bottlers in domestic market. The response from consumers is quite positive. The Company is negotiating with other private bottlers in different cities to supply LPG gas in it's cylinders.

The Company negotiated sale of 38,717 sq. ft. premises at Supreme Chambers at Andheri (West), Mumbai. It has received initial deposits and expected to complete the transactions before September this year.
